Conferences, Seminars & Meetings at Himley Hall

Himley Hall has established itself as one of the principal conference venues in the Midlands.

Discreet luxury created through sensitive restoration has created a restful yet stimulating environment in landscaped grounds, perfect for conferences, seminars and meetings. Himley's suite of seven high specification refurbished conference rooms offers accommodation for as few as six persons or as many as 150 persons in one room.

Combine this with the technology and comfort required in today's demanding business world: fully accessible rooms and disabled facilities, full 'in-house' catering, 'tailor-made' conference packages, flexible room layouts and experienced conference support staff and you have the perfect conference venue.

Set amidst 180 acres of 'Capability' Brown parkland, Himley Hall offers a tranquil setting, yet is situated just 4 miles from Dudley and 6 miles from Wolverhampton. In Spring and Summer months the Hall is open to the public in the afternoon with a fascinating array of arts and crafts exhibitions, however every effort is made to ensure privacy for your conference.

Rooms

Since 1995 Himley Hall's exquisitely refurbished ground floor suite of rooms have offered elegant and sophisticated facilities for conference bookings. Seven unique rooms, varying in size and capacity are available:

Peach Rooms

The Earl of Dudley's former Ballroom, the Large and Small Peach Rooms are linked by imposing internal double doors and overlook the South Wing lawns of the Hall. Solid oak flooring complements the light, airy atmosphere.

Pink Room

Once the Hall Library the Pink Room has gentle views across the parkland towards the lake.

Green Room

Complete with its historic chandelier, the Green Room was previously the formal dining room of Himley Hall.

Oak Room

The Oak Room overlooks the courtyard of Himley Hall and is the home of a magnificent 8ft high oak mantelpiece as befitted the original Billiard Room of the Earls of Dudley.

Brown Room

The original 'white drawing room' of the Hall to which the ladies retired after dinner. The Brown Room is our smallest conference room in the West Wing.

Swimming Pool

The newly refurbished North Wing, which once housed the Earl of Dudley's swimming pool, has been transformed into an elegant Art-Deco style conference and banqueting suite.

Magnificent 1930's style bespoke lighting, 'state-of-the-art' audio-visual equipment and stylish soft furnishings ensure that the Swimming Pool Room is one of the Midlands' top conference venues.

Facilities

Full conference support is available: flipcharts, power-point projector (small charge), photocopying, message handling. Free Wi-Fi access is available in all conference rooms.
